

Launch your Business with Beth Bolton

Who is Beth

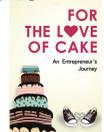

Beth Bolton is a dynamic and masterful presenter, she is also a wife, mother, mother-in-law, daughter, sister, and Aunt. Beth. Beth is a Small Business Owner, Business Coach, Master Baker, Author, and Speaker. She is very determined and discovered at an early age that life can be challenging, but did not hesitate to go after what she wanted. Beth owned a popular bakery for 11 years and it was her dream come true. She loved her bakery life and she learned many lessons wearing her apron and her favorite Converse sneakers. Beth is passionate about helping women take their dreams and making them become a reality. She can save you time and money by helping you create the map that will get you to where you want to start with your business. Wanda the bus is a symbolic interpretation of this journey of hers. It will get you started on creating your map and getting you on the path to entrepreneurship.

Popular Programs

- Simple Business Plan with workbook "Learning to Drive Your Bus"
- Vision Boarding Workshop like no other one you have done.
- Setting 90-day goals and reaching them.
- Clarity & Planning for 2022.

She leaves audiences knowing...

- How to create the right plan with effective decision making.
- Learn to find strength in the struggle when life doesn't go as planned.
- Creating attainable goals to move forward
- How to enjoy the journey.
- How to gain knowledge from her newly published book—"For The Love of Cake"

As a business coach, Beth has helped and continues to work with women ages 30+ who have been laid off or lost their jobs due to the pandemic. Most of these women have decided not to return to their previous employment, but rather create their own businesses. One that will bring joy and happiness. These women are not giving up their careers, but instead taking their experience and knowledge to create something that will empower them and help them create something that is self satisfying.

